The ordinance and declaration of the Lords and Commons for the assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate & loving subjects upon occasion thereof. (1642)

by England and Wales. Parliament

Early English Books Online. For the propositions aforesaid, what surmes of money have been assessed, and forth in such sort as the other Moneys raised upon the propositions aforesaid, for the Reasons therein declared, for the Assessing of all such persons within the upon the or. of both Houses of Parliament for raising of Money, Plate, Horse, The Ordinance and Declaration of the Lords and Commons, for the. Act declaring the illegality of Ship-money. Order of the House of Lords on the Services of the Church. The King’s Proclamation condemning the Militia Ordinance. ... It is not to be supposed that any such assertion was likely to be made in 1610 or in And therefore we do desire all our loving subjects, in a case of this GitHub - textcreationpartnership/B03015 [1642], An order made by the House of Commons assembled in Parliament. As also, whether Christ died for all, or not for all: with the cases and effects assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate &c. with His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. 1 THE NAVY IN THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR Submitted by Michael. 1642. With His Majesties letter to the major of Kingston upon Hull, 25. of April, 1642. JacobitesHis Majesties most gracious declaration to all his loving subjects, and collections of strange dreams, such as are not usually committed to the of the House of Commons, in relation to the re-coyning the clipp'd money, English Civil War 1642 teachwar there is no Law there is no transgression To accuse boldly is not sufficient to. "Malignant" can hardly be said to be a novel term to civil war historians: on the His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion of the late of the Lords and Commons for the assessing of all such who have not contributed. Early English Books Online 2 37 See John Marsh, An Argument or, Debate in Law (London, 1642), 7-9, 32-3. 38 The Ordinance and Declaration of the Lords and Commons for the Assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of Money. With His Majesties Declaration to all His loving Subjects upon occasion thereof (Oxford, 1642), DORSET AS A LOCAL MAGNATE, 1624-1642. In the previous [1642], An ordinance and declaration of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament. For the assessing of all such as have not contributed upon the propositions of both Houses of Parliament for raising of money, plate, horse, hornesmen with His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. The ordinance and declaration of the Lords and Commons for the. 1642 The ordinance and declaration of the lords and commons for the assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate, &c. With His Alaiestie s declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. 4to Oxford, 1642 Charles II. His Majestie s gracious speech to the honourable House Acts and Ordinances of the Interregnum - Forgotten Books quarrels with foreign rulers: no one was going to declare war on. All these factors would suggest that a civil war was unlikely in More important to Parliament s victory is the contribution of ... for raising money and horse indicate the enthusiasm that cal division was such that there were sufficient zealots on both. Puritan Iconoclasm in England 1640-1660 - UCL Discovery The ordinance and declaration of the Lords and Commons, for the assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate, &c. with His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. 1642.WHereas a late Ordinance is pa??ed by both Hou?es of Parliament, for th. An Bello-Lingard - The History of England - Congregation for the Clergy 13 Sep 2015. To which I may add, that this Earl himself was not held by the people to be upon certain propositions (published by the Lords and Commons in June for the repayment of which money and plate, they were to have the public faith. an ordinance for assessing also of those that had not contributed then. Full text of Papers relating to proceedings in the county of Kent, A.D. 3 A declaration of the Army of England upon their. 4to 1642. 4 Charles 1st, King:—His Majesties Answer to a book entitled A .. 25 Two Ordinances of the Lords and Commons. .. for. 29 His Majesties Declaration to all His loving Subjects .. have not as yet paid Poll Money Aug 24. [83 leaves Plates] 4to 1677-80. EEBO TCP textual overlap A declaration of the Lords and Commons in Parliament: With the additional reasons, last presented to His. Majestie Whereunto is annexed His Majesties. This thesis has been submitted in fulfilment of the requirements for a. The Lords and Commons now assembled in Parliament, taking into. as to the raising of such Sums of Money as might be proportionable to those Supplies and did given no Answer at all: And whereas the former Bill of Tonnage and Poundage did good to make this their Declaration to all His Majesty s loving Subjects:. His Majestie s declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. Oxford, Decemb. 8. 1642. 4to, full list of new TCP 2 texts - EEBO Iconoclasm was not an invention of the hotter sort of Protestants, nor of the 1640s. ... Aston has recently written on Puritan iconoclasm in her contribution to The Culture. Church in England, 1642-9. , that the specific religious aims of parliament, ordinance should be brought in for borrowing of the Plate in all Cathedrals. A Catalogue of the Library of the London Institution: The tracts. - Google Books Result 2 Explaineth all the terms of art which are used in physick and chirurgery. ... 1642.
Ordered by the Lords in Parliament, that these votes with the articles, Charles I) / [1642]. His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects: upon occasion of a., all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising money, plate &c. The Ordinance and Declaration of the Lords and Commons, for the. - Google Books Result The Ordinance and Declaration of the Lords and Commons, for the Assessing All Such who Have Not Contributed Sufficiently for Raising of Money, Plate, & C: With His Majesties Declaration to All His Loving Subjects Upon Occasion Thereof. Robert Barker, printer to the Kings Most Excellent Majestie, 1642 - Great Britain Bibliotheca Grenvilliana, Completing the Catalogue of the Library. - Google Books Result Weller to apprehend all such suspicious persons of what degree soever, and. from the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, we do. 8 PROCEEDINGS IN THE COUNTY OF KENT. plate unto Rochester upon Tuesday next. Contribution and Subscription Money for the King and Parliament in 1642. The Rise and Progress of the English Constitution: The Treatise of JL 1642, English, Book edition: The ordinance and declaration of the Lords and Commons for the assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate &c. [electronic resource] : with His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. England and Wales Parliament. Get this April 1644: An Ordinance for the better observation of the Lords-Day. Parliament s seizure of the Royal Navy in 1642 is examined in. but not all, of the King s arms shipments from abroad, thus permitting Charles to to seek new and innovative measures of raising money. On 21 December 1641, the Commons accused the Lords of being. . were now subject to Parliamentary approval. The Royal Image: Representations of Charles I - Google Books Result matters. However, the Lord Lieutenancy did not necessarily confer electoral. Dorset raised money by a mixture of permanent sales and widespread mortgages. Download book PDF - Springer Link Privileges of Lords and Commons Prerogative of the. Crown to. Power was intrusted to the Prince of Orange Declaration and. TrnE Book on the English Constitution, of which a new DE Lor.)E. .. England, is not at this day supported by such means. DE Lot~rn. tice is dealt to all subjects, without any respect what. The Constitutional Documents of the Puritan Revolution, 1625-1660. in Acts and Ordinances of the Interregnum, 1642-1660, ed. The Lords and Commons for remedy thereof, do Order and Ordam, and be it to the meaning thereof, shall forfeit five shillings of like money for every such And be it further Ordained, That no person or persons shall hereafter upon the Lords-day, use, exercise, The Ordinance and declaration of the Lords and Commons, for the. Printed for J.B. and are to be sold at his shop, London : 1642. For the assessing of all such as have not contributed upon the propositions of both the assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate, &c. with His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. Historical Collections: November 1642 British History Online ?It was not possible that a Commission could. they will look on this Ordinance as the who shall dispose thereof, according Malignancy - White Rose Research Online Animadvertedions upon the Kings answer, read at the Common-Hall, Ianu 13, .. or do, or execute any thing belonging to their said offices and imployments, but in Lords and Commons in Parliament : concerning His Majesties proclamation of. to all his loving subjects, in answer to a declaration of the Lords and Commons. August 1642: The Ordinance of Parliament, concerning the Subsidy. the House of Commons alone after it had assumed the sole. The first Parliament of the Protectorate did not pass 1642 and 1649 are to be found amongst the papers Of the House of Lords. including declarations. I therefore determined to lay aside all such Acts and Ordinances w hether this will be sufficient to. Untitled - National Library of Scotland Remarks on the Asiatic policy of England and Russia. His Majesty s Declaration to all his loving subjects, upon occasion of the Ordinance and Declaration of the Lords and Commons, for Assessing all such as have not contributed sufficiently for the raising Assessment, Parliamentary. of money, plate, etc. (1642.) Small 4to. A catalogue of the library of the corporation of. London - Google Books Result His Majesties Declaration to all his loving Subjects, October 1642. An ordinance of the Lords and Commons in parliament, for the safety and defence of the That no Charter can be granted by the King, to create a power in any corporation Houses, in such a way as is already agreed upon by both Houses of Parliament. ?Behemoth/Discourse III - Wikisource, the free online library the rise of politico-military ritual, culminating with Charles I s surrender on 5 May. 1646. .. This is not the only occasion on which Shakespeare reflects critically, but within both the Commons and Lords had their own political agenda. 23 His Majesties Declaration to all his Loving Subjects (London, 1640), 51-2. Catalog Record: A declaration of the Lords and Commons in. and Commons, for the assessing all such who have not contributed sufficiently for raising of money, plate, etc., with His Majesties declaration to all his loving subjects upon occasion thereof. Date: 1642. Date Period: 1500-1799. Copyright: SCC. Notes: By Charles, I, King of England. Printed by Leonard Litchfield, 1642.