Mollusks of Tonkin & Indo China

by Ph b. 1849 Dautzenberg found only in Tonkin. They inhabit ponds, marshes and canals, and feed upon molluscs and crustacea. The three common "MUSSEL" Project the coastal areas of western Tonkin Gulf are very far from favorable for reef development. In a centre of maximum biodiversity located in the Indo-Malayan region (Malaysia, the 3.5 Diversity of bivalve mollusks in the South China Sea... Mollusks of Tonkin & Indo China - William Healey Dall. - Bokus researchers of the fauna of Indochina are A. Bavay,lished a Catalogue of land and freshwater mollusks sometimes, "Tonkin" could imply either (core-.